Signora Ristori piayed Mary Sinart last evening to the most numerous audience of this, her second season. It was as fashionable as it was large, also. The performance was very superb throughout, for Mary Sinart is perhaps, next to Elizabeth, Signora Rist evening was both warm and liberal last evening was leave to open the default and have the top of the last last on the loss of the under the last op of the hospitals would take to open the default and have the last evening by one of the Neptune line of steam of Police sent him on to this city Tuosday evening by one of the Neptune line of steam of Police sent him on to this city Tuosday twelve months just passed, there have en two hundred fires discovered by pairs of gloves in testifying their admiration of the sad and affecting picture of the gloves of sparolmen (cheers) and extinction of the sad and affecting picture of the queen of Scots, which Ristori gives so unsurpassably. The lower characters were surpassably. The lower characters were agreeably rendered, also. The pretty Virginian Carati, Signor Ristori, and Signor Mullen, the case of Is and Mehrback vs. Chasting of the other honors. To the care of Is and Mehrback vs. Chasting of the other honors.

res of interest, and I need only be entire Department is divided divisions or districts, each being control and supervision of an engineer, while the entire ystem is piaced under the precine of a chief engineer of the Board of Endirection of a control and supervision of an engineer, while the entire ystem is piaced under the precine of a chief engineering of a chief engineering of the efficiency of the companies under his tree of those companies under his tree of those companies ander his tree of the control office, where of the tree central office, where of the received from any ty and transmitted instantaneous first the control of the precinct second District Police Court to the Fourteenth Precinct as acting captum of that precinct Sergeant Heavy Burden has been transferred from the Eighteen Precinct to the Second District Police Court.

Queen of Scots, which Ristori gives so the surpassably. The lower characters were agreeably rendered, also. The pretty Virginian Carati, Signor Ristori, and Signora Court, Circuit, yesterday, before Justice Mullen, the case of Is an Mehrback vs. Chas. To night Eistori plays Elizabeth, in Brooklyn, and will address the audience in English on Friday, for her benefit in New York, she will play Medea and the "Sleep-Walking Scene in Lady Macbeth." On Monday next Ristori will appear in Baltimore.

Poince Promotions.—The Police Company. The defence was that this claim ded horses for plaintiff would appear in Baltimore.

Poince Promotions.—The Police Company the defendant had appraised horses for plaintiff would appear in Baltimore.

Poince Promotions.—The Police Company the defendant had appraised horses for plaintiff as a friendly act, and was committed for trial to the Court of Special Sessions, charged with haying violated the boat law by holding communication with the brigs John Gree and Madicuro, now lying in the harbor. Sergeant Fitzgerald, of the Twenty-fourth Previnct, prosecuted.

Felonious Assault.—James Regan was argued in the Tombs Police Court, before Justice Dowling, two boatmen named Patrick Court, Circuit. agreeably rendered, also. The pretty virginian Carati, Signor Ristori, and Signors Coult. Circuit. Yesterday, before Justine In State of Paint Plaintiff suces to renight Eistori plays Elizabeth, in Brooklyn, and will address the audience in English. On Friday, for her benefit in New York, she will play Medea, and the "Sleep-Walking Scene in Lady Macbeth." On Monday next Ristori will appear in Baltimore.

Patter Provotions.—The Police Commissioners held a meeting yesterday morning for the purpose of filling the office of Dainel Carpenter. George W. Walling, Captain of the Twentieth Precinct Police was appointed to the position. The following transfers and promotions were also made. Inspector, George W. Dilks, to be colseed; Inspector George W. Dilks, to be colseed; Inspector James Leonard, Inspector of First District, vice George W. Dilks, to be conseed; Inspector James Leonard, Inspector of First District, vice George W. Dilks, to be conseed; Inspector James Leonard, Inspector of First District, vice George W. Dilks, to be conseed; Inspector James Leonard, Inspector of First District, vice George W. Dilks, to be conseed; Inspector James Leonard, Inspector of First District, vice George W. Dilks, to be conseed; Captain Henry Hedden, of the "OUTSIDE" POLICY-LOTTERY DEALERS TRIUMPHANT.—In the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday, the case of United States agst. Wm. Craft was tried. The defendant was one of the "outside" lottery and policy dealcaptured to the personal examination for themselves. Mr. Abbre concluded and themselves. Mr. Abbre concluded to the toast was. The Thirty ainth Congress of the United States, which was explaint the property of the Court.

The next toast was. The Thirty ainth Congress of the United States, which was explainted to the toast in an appropriate address, and concluded by giving—The Reconstruction of the South on a basis of loyalty, which was responded to by giving—The Reconstruction of the South on a basis of loyalty, which was responded to by giving—The Reconstruction of the South on a basis of loyalty, which was responded to the Charles E Currier, who superintended the collation, the Press, and the Insurance Companies. The company then dispersed.

Ophylical Companies and Crossy streets, was opened of Thesday evening by the Masonic Executive Committee on By-laws.

Elicated to the Second District Tool is and the collation of the Strong Day.

The Board, by ballot, proceeded to the schools on the day following Thanks-for trial at the next term of the Court, on the third Monday in February. This probability and policy dealers are the court of the Edite to the English to the Court.

The court of the Tressury had issued foltery and policy dealers than no the Court.

Beautin has been transferded from the Eagle to the Strong Loyal thanks that the Court of the Court.

Beautin has been transferded from the Eagle to the Strong Loyal thanks that the Court of the Court.

Beautin has been transferded from the Eagle to the Strong Loyal thanks that the Court of the Court and the Court of the Strong Loyal thanks that the Court of the Court and the Court and the Court and the Cour ers recently arrested for selling without.
The Secretary

Police Court yesterday morning, before Jus-

Grand Larceny.—Thomas Madigan was fully committed on the charge of having, on the 8th of the present month, stolen $48 in gold coin, Treasury notes and money from a woman named Mary Jane Helenstein, of No. 12 Mulberry street. The accused lodged with complainant, and after taking the money left the city. A warrant was obtained for his arrest, when he was discovered in Rochester and brought on here. The prisoner pleaded guilty. Some of the stolen money was recovered.

Brooklyn.

ILLICIT DISTLLERY BUSINESS-THE INVES TIGATION CONTINUED .- The investigation in the alleged illicit distillery business was resumed at 10 o'clock yesterday morning before Commissioner Newton. A. Oakey Hall was employed by the defendants to attend to their interests, but as he could not remain during the investigation, Judge Dittenhoefer took his place.

It is said that the company engaged in the manufacture of what they term "burning fluid" have made within three weeks 150,000 gallons of the stuff in Brooklyn, 250,000 galgallons of the stuff in Brooklyn, 250,000 gallons at distilleries in New York and New Jersey, and on this of course no tax has been paid.

Mr. Gloss, who was on the stand on Tues-young men, belonging principally to the Grand street stores, comprise what is known as "The Eastern District Early Cl'sing Association," and already two meetings of the body have been held, and their organization perfected. "Moral sussion" is the motto of the association.

H. Ramsey, formerly residing at No. 642 East 13th street, New York, was found in East 13th street, New York, was found in the river foot of Noble atrect. Greenpoint, yesterday morning. Mr. Ramsey was drown-ed on the 9th inst., by the upsetting of a boat in which he was fishing. Coroner Smith gaye the body to the family of de-ceased for interment.

A New CHURCH .- The corner stone of a new church edifice for the congregation of the South Fifth Street M. E. Church, Rev. C. H. Payne, pastor, will be laid this afternoon, at the corner of Bedford avenue and Wilson sireet, E. D. Previous to this ceremony, interesting exercises, in which Bishops Janes and Simpson are expected to take part, will be held in the old church.

MARINE NEWS.

Nov. 22, 5 rices,6 55; 8, sets, 4 88; High Water, 68 0 CLEARED. STEAMSHIPS—Albemaris, Norfolk City; Sarato-ga, do; Delaware, Georgetown; Morro Castie, Havana; J 8 Green, Savannah. 3HIP—Java, McLean, for New Orleans.

BARKS - Eliza Bares, Bermuda; John Eella, Liv'i BR178 - J B Campbell, Barbadoes; L A Edwards ernandins, Fla. Pernandina, Fia.

SCHOONERS—Clara Montgomery, Newbern; JE Brooks, Boston Equator, do: Ed Watson, Jeckson-Ville, Dadem, Nassan; W H Mitchell, Edrabethport, STEAMERIPS—Earle, Havans; Villa de Paris, Havro, Nepune, Boston; Guthrie, fevenue easter; New Redford; Dirigo, Portland; Nyak, Alexandris; Teuconis, Hamburg.

SHIP—Mercury, Stetson, Havre, with mdss.

BARKS E H Ta lor, Gardiff, Whistler, NBedford; Primo, Legisoru.

BTIGS-WR Sawyer, Jacksonville, Fia: Alpha Windsor, N 8.

WANTED.

GAITER FITTER TO BASTE AND

A LI. LADIES TAUGHT OPERATING ON assign machines and to make shirts, &c. Aliao an evening class at 1 o'clock for subscribers only. Vachine to rent and for sale. Apply 367 Grand smar Box ery, tep floor. DRESSMAKERS WANTED - AT 1148 Broadway, and an operator on Wheeler & Wil-son's machine; none but he very best workmen need apply. Come prepared to work.

NEW SHIRT IRONERS WANTED; FOUR ployment, and also two good starchers, b. supplying at the Union Laundry, 60 Marion street, Ne" York City.

DROWNED MAN.—The body of Mr. George

O PERATORS WANTED ON A. B.

Howe's machine on fancy, tips; good wante and steaty work, at 163 Division st. OPERATORS WANTED ON LINEN Coats -None but good hands need apply. Call lor one week at 136 West 23th at, top moor. Bids en-trance.

> OPERATOR-ONE HAVING A FIRSTbow to run it perfectly in the finest will and bows how to run it perfectly in the finest will and bows lines vests, can have sendy out its year ound in a private piace, by calling at 307 Kest 9th st, between Aves C and D, 1 stating at 107 Kest 9th at 107 p. 109 TINMEN WANTED-A FEW GOOD TIN roofe; e; also a good tin and sheet from worker, to work at lobbing. Apply in the tin shep, 976 Bloockerst.

TO TAILORS-WANTED-2 FIRST RATE pressmen to press custom costs; none but the best need apply. Cally at 3 Dover st. M. HEA TO BAKERS-WANTED, A THIRD hand; apply 104 South 6th st, Williamsburgh. 159

POETRY.

THE COMING OF WINTER. He comest the Winter comes'
I hear his footstops through the nights!
I hear his vanguard on the heights
March thro'the plues with muffled drum!

His naked feet are on the mead:
The grass bildes staten in his path
No tear for child of earth he hath!
No pity for the tender seed!

The bare oaks shulder at his breath!
A moment by the stream he stays—
Its melody is mute! A glaze
Creeps o'er its dimples, as of death!

The city walls he silent nears; The mansions of the rich he fears! He storms the cabins of the poor The curtained couch, the glowing hearth.
The frost rimmed greybeard's power defy!
He curses as he hurries by
And strikes the beggar dead, to earth!

From fettered stream and blackened moor

For every gleaming hall he spares.
A hundred heartless hovels hold.
Hearts pulseless, crisp with ice and cold.
Watched by a hundred grim despairs!

Here is your mission! Ye who feed Your lavish fires! Not afar But at your doors your heathen are! God's Poor—your creditors! Take heed

The path is long to Pagan shores'
Their skips are sanny—God e'er all!
The Winter's deadly harvests fall
Around you! Deal your masters stores!

SLAIN BY A FAN.

"And as taking the principles of the property of the principles of me, what I was shortly to call mysell—a Heniker; a Heniker in heart as well as in name.

But now lawyers and friends agreed that we might go back to London. It was desirable to do so; for Frank was coming from Oxford, and Fred from Eton, and I had not seen them yet. So we packed up sundry small treasures which were to travel with us, and sat down to sneud almost our last evening in the room where the picture hung of the lady with the feather fan. As was natural, we talked again of Dame Jenifer's story; but I saw my mother shrunk a little from the subject. And again and again, by the glinting firelight, as we sat gossiping. I caught the strange, life-like smile of the laughing face, till I grew friendly with its beauty, and was almost cheated into thinking that the reas fan, and not its picture, was beckoning to me from a living hand. I think this evening will always remain in my memory with a strange sensation of mystery about it. But in the morning came a letter, which made my mother determine to prolong her stay at Heniker; and I was too happy in our close re-union, after a seven vears' separation, to wish to leave

Sentence of the sent of the se golden cups, violets, and blue both were delights indescribable for the ear and eye.

My wanderings with my mother were protonged till late in the soft evenings, and

My wanderings with my mother were prolonged till late in the soft evenings, and it was during one of those sweet, sauntering hours, that I again talked to her of Damo Jenifer's story.

"What became of Jasper Heniker, and his wife, Kate Cradock!"

"One day you must look over the Heniker, late the laters. They will please you, for Kate and her friend wrote pleasantly to each other. Kate had children, and one of her sons married Jenifer's only daughter. But there was no issue from that marriage, Jenifer's son was to have married one of Jaspar's girls; but he had a spirit like his mother's, I suppose, and he would not fulfil what the mothers wished for. He took his wife from a noble family, and the place came down to us in an unbroken line."

"I should like to visit Jaspar's home."

"I should like to visit Jaspar's home."

"And did Henikers live there then?"

"No. It was somewhere near Whitosands. I have ridden there as a girl."

"And did Henikers live there then?"

"No. It was a low, long, rambling farmhouse. Mr. Heniker has let it many years, the was the last, and was in India thea. Since that he married a young widow, with a daughter. I think: but he never had any children of his own, so 'Dick Heniker,' as my father used to call him, was the last of Jaspar's descendants. The house was called Whiteacres Farm. Dick was a little older than me."

"I shall ride over there to-morrow," I

than me."
"I shall ride over there to-morrow," I

than me."

"I shall ride over there to-morrow," I said.

And when the morning roae with all the promise of a Summer's day, I proceeded to keep my word, ordered Jessie, my favorite, out of the Heniker stables, and after breakfast mounted, and rode away.

There is no more lary enjoyment, and no one more luxuriates in this particular sort of pleasure than a thoroughly strong many there is no gentler luxury than a Summer ride through a rich country on a good horse—a horse that seems to enjoy itself, and that appears to have some sort of sympathy with the master who rides through the flowery lanes and by the scented hedges, listening to the strong music of the skylark, rising from the short grass—from home to heaven—and feeding, as it were, on sights and sounds with a spirit-satisfying contentment, and a heart full of love.

(To be Continued.)

Serving and beautifying the skin-This delighs ful preparation stands pre-em neut for removing purples, blotches, tan, and all imperfections from the skin, rendering it beautifully c ear, soft and white rivaling nature in her fairest forms. Price only 40 bents per bottle. To be had only at 46 South Second at, Williamsburgh, and 21 Eigh h swe. N. Y. 614

HOW TO OBTAIN PATENTS, CAVEATS,